

Statistics for April 2025: Forced returns from Norway

The police forcibly returned 200 persons in April 2025, 65 of whom were convicted offenders.

The National Police Immigration Service (NPIS) is responsible for executing, coordinating and assuring the quality of all returns of foreigners staying illegally in Norway. The respective police districts are responsible for returns following refusal of entry or stay, while the NPIS is responsible for returning persons who have had their asylum applications rejected or who are returned under the Dublin procedure or to safe third countries. The Norwegian Directorate of Immigration (NDI) is responsible for assisted returns, previously called voluntary returns. Assisted returns are not included in these statistics.

Convicted offenders

In April, the police returned 65 convicted offenders, 32,5% of all returnees that month.

So far this year, 245 convicted offenders have been returned, compared with 245 in the same period last year.

Below are statistics for the last four years:

Convicted offenders returned over the last four years

The most common nationalities among convicted returnees so far this year are Romanian (20%), Lithuanian (9%) and Polish (9%).

Minors

A total of 14 minors were returned in April, either to their home country or to a safe third country. 13 travelled with their parents or another family member, while one was an unaccompanied minor.

As a rule, Norwegian authorities do not attempt to verify the age of unaccompanied minors when they are to be returned to another European country under the Dublin III Regulation.

All returned unaccompanied minors must be met by either family members or others who will care for them, e.g. representatives of relevant institutions or the child welfare services in the country in question.

Returns on chartered flights

No returnee flights were chartered in April. So far this year, there has been one chartered returnee flight.

The various returnee categories

The police return persons who have no legal right to stay in Norway, i.e. not only persons who have had their application for asylum and any appeals rejected.

- 1) Asylum – all persons who have applied for protection (asylum) in Norway and who have had their application processed and rejected in Norway and have exhausted all avenues of appeal. This category also includes persons subject to an expulsion order.
- 2) Dublin – anyone returned under the Dublin Regulation. This also includes persons subject to an expulsion order. The Dublin Regulation applies in the EU, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Switzerland and Norway. The Regulation governs, inter alia, which member state will process any given asylum application. The purpose of the Regulation is to prevent asylum seekers from applying in multiple countries, but also to ensure that one of the countries assumes responsibility for the asylum seeker.

- 3) International protection – Returns of third-country nationals granted international protection (IP) in another Schengen country. Previously categorised as ‘Dublin’ returns, IP cases will henceforth be treated as a separate category, as they are not processed under the Dublin Regulation.
- 4) Refused entry or stay – persons who have been refused entry or stay as they are not permitted to stay here. This may be for various reasons, but persons who are refused entry or stay are not banned from Norway after their return.
- 5) Expelled – anyone expelled from Norway who has not applied for protection (asylum) or who is not subject to the Dublin Regulation. Most of those who fall into this category have been expelled due to a criminal conviction and are banned from Norway for a specific period of time. Violation of the re-entry ban is a punishable offence.
